

Environmental, Safety and Health Certification

By checking the appropriate box on the front of this form, Vendor certifies compliance with, and ensures that its employees, contractors, subcontractors and agents comply with, and provide all notices and other communications required under, all applicable environmental and public and employee health and safety laws including local, national, European Union and international laws, ordinances, rules, governmental or judicial orders, regulations and guidelines.

Vendor also certifies that is has or will timely provide the information and certifications required pursuant to the TI Controlled Chemicals and Materials Specification found at <http://wpl.ext.ti.com/ccms/ccms.htm>.